

In this season of joy and gratitude, we are thrilled to bring you heartwarming stories of impact, highlighting the resilience and boundless potential of Share & Care's beneficiaries.

Transforming Lives through Empowerment

The Sneh Sadhna Retreats, organized by Sabarmati Ashram Trust and supported by Share & Care, provide a safe and supportive space for girls to nurture their emotional well-being, gain perspective, and embrace the power of gratitude.

To witness firsthand the impact and potential of women's empowerment, we invite you to watch a powerful video from the most recent Leadership Retreat. Through this immersive experience, you will witness the transformation, hope, and potential that thrive.

At each retreat 30 girls and 5 volunteers gather to share in a transformative weekend, surrounded by others like them, share stories, reflect on what they want for their futures, and learn strategies to become who they wish to be.

Thank you for being an integral part of our journey of positive change.
You can continue to spread blessings to our beneficiaries with a gift!

One attendee beautifully captured the profound impact of the retreat, expressing:

I used to think that I had a lot of problems and that I was poor and had nothing. But Sneh Sadhna taught me that there are many girls who have even less. The gratitude walk taught me to appreciate the many things I have, even the things I have never seen or counted as blessings. Even taking a breath is a big gift from God.
